Laura Grubb is a recent Murdoch University Animal Science graduate. Growing up between the Kimberley and Perth her passion for agriculture was fostered by her exposure to the many different production systems her family are involved in, from crayfishing right through to beef production.

Heavily involved in advocating the youth's voice in agriculture, Laura was the 2015 Angus Youth Beef Australia Scholar and a delegate in the 2015 Youth Ag Summit in Canberra. Subsequently Laura was selected as the developed world representative voice of youth in agriculture at the United Nations Committee on World Food Security in Rome, Italy.

Shannah Kennedy is a leading Australian business and life coach and is the author of bestseller Simplify, Structure, Succeed and The Life Plan, Simple Strategies for a Meaningful Life.

Shannah works with leading business professionals worldwide on their personal and professional strategies and provides the coaching and support needed for them to achieve their visions and goals. Throughout her years of coaching, she's found that clients share one commonality – most of them don't need motivation. They're very successful people and they know what they need to do to reach their goals. What they actually need is for things to be simplified, so they can dig themselves out of the clutter to find clarity and purpose in their daily routines, and live a full life without self-destruction. They want to get back to the foundations of who they are.
